Interpreters must be familiar with different variations and dialects of a particular language. Services shall be performed by professional and experienced interpreters that possess demonstrated proficiency levels in both working languages that range from the ability to speak the language with structural accuracy and ample vocabulary to effective participation in most formal and informal conversations on practical, social and professional topics. The maximum proficiency level will be that of a highly articulate, well-educated native speaker which reflects the cultural standards of the country where the language is natively spoken. All service requests are to be filled by a certified or qualified interpreter.

b. Request for Service

Rates will be assessed based on the amount of notice provided by the Requesting Agency; not on the time it takes to find an appropriate Interpreter. Unless a requesting agency has specified a longer period, vendors are required to arrive at least fifteen (15) minutes prior to the scheduled time of on-site performance to receive any instructions from the requesting agency. The vendor is responsible for taking all necessary actions to obtain adequate transportation, accurate times, locations, directions, telephone numbers, contact person(s) and any other information or actions to ensure that they are present at the proper location and on time. Any calls the requesting entities may need the interpreter to complete, such as scheduling appointment with client and confirmation of appointment are to be considered supplemental time associated with the “appointment”. No additional fee for this service will be permitted. Vendors must be aware of and adhere to any security clearances and dress code requirements applicable at the requesting agency's location.

Requests for service should include, at a minimum, the following information:

- Appointment Location

- Appointment Contact Person
- Billing Information

Requests may also include:

- Gender specific requirement
- Requests for a specific interpreter, previously used, for continuity and consistency

Requesting Agency and the vendor will mutually determine the most appropriate number and type of interpreters needed in all situations on a case by case basis to ensure all clients are appropriately served and interpreters are working in accordance with occupational health and safety standards.

At any time following interpretation service the vendor may be required by the requesting agency to answer questions and/or provide back-up documentation to support billing inquiries. The vendor must keep an accurate record of all performance time.

c. Minimum Billing

The minimum billable time will be one (1) hour. On-Site Interpretation service will include the fifteen (15) minutes proceeding the scheduled time for performance or any longer time requested by the requesting agency. After the first hour, services will be billed in 15 minute increments.

Exceptions: Accurate Language Services & Para-Plus Translations have a minimum billable time of two (2) hours.

d. Requested Time –vs- Billable Time

Should an interpreter not be needed for full requested time, requesting agency shall be billed for either minimum billable time or actual time interpreter was on site (whichever is greater) plus a $25 shortened appointment fee. Examples below are based on a one-hour minimum.

- Example #1: Requested 9am – 1pm, with 8:45am arrival. Assignment completed at 11am. Agency would be billed actual time + $25.00
- Example #2: Requested 9am – 1pm, with 8:45am arrival. Assignment completed at 9:30am. Agency would be billed minimum billable (one hour) + $25.00

Interpreters will be required to complete a linguist time sheet for each appointment under this contract. Time sheet must be signed off on by the requesting agency point of contact or their designee and a copy must be attached to the invoices.

Actual length of appointment may be less than or greater than the estimated time notated in original request for service. If it becomes clear the appointment may run past the estimated end time, a break will be called to allow the requesting agency to confer with the interpreter to see if their schedule allows for additional time or a follow-up appointment needs to be scheduled. In cases where the LEP client is involved in a DSCFY investigation or involuntary commitment to a State facility appointment length cannot be anticipated; therefore, interpreter will need to remain onsite until the initial appointment has concluded. Breaks will be provided where appropriate during the initial appointment.

- Date of Invoice
- Contract #, GSS15602-LINGUIST

Each assignment shall be listed as a separate line item on the invoice.

Invoices submitted to Requesting Entities after award that fail to meet the minimum requirements will be rejected. Failure to provide a valid invoice within 30-days of a correction request may warrant notice to cure and contract termination.

f. Cancellations

General: Requesting agencies cancelling a service request before 5:00pm the day before the assignment will not be assessed a cancellation fee. Requesting agencies cancelling a service request after 5:00pm the day before the assignment will be billed for one (1) compensatory hour at the designated rate for the cancelled assignment.

Exception: Accurate Language Services – Cancellations made before 12:00pm the day before the assignment will not be assessed a cancellation fee. Cancellations made after 12:00pm the day before will be billed for the two hour minimum.

Weather: In the event of inclement weather, the interpreter is responsible for checking the local TV and/or Radio Stations for closure information. Information regarding closures can also be found on the State's website. The Requesting agency will not be penalized for any service cancelled due to a weather related closure or delay. In the event of a delay interpreter is responsible for contacting the requester directly to determine the new arrival time or postponements.

Interpreter: Should an interpreter(s) become unavailable to attend a scheduled appointment the vendor will be responsible for obtaining a replacement and notify the requesting agency of the change ASAP. The Requesting Agency will not be responsible for any additional fees associated with the need for a substitute interpreter. Should the vendor not be able to provide a replacement interpreter in a reasonable amount of time requesting agency can procure the services open market and charge the vendor any price difference.

g. Late Arrivals

It is the responsibility of the vendor to provide notice to the requesting agency if they are running late (i.e. traffic, accident, etc.). In the event an interpreter is late and the agency utilizes the interpreter, the agency will only be billed for the time of actual services provided. Should notification of late arrival not be provided to the requesting agency prior to the scheduled time of services, the agency at its discretion may contact another supplier on contract for services. - The operator will ask you the following at the time of the call
- Access code (to be provided after the set up call)
- Information to be collected at the time of the call (TBD)

- You will be connected to your interpreter

(Set the stage with the interpreter as to what you would like to ask or say to the non-English person.)

- Proceed with the conversation by talking with the Limited English Proficiency Client directly (i.e., always in the first person – for example, "How are you feeling today?") and "pretend the Interpreter does not exist" as they are merely an extension of your voice.
- When finished with the need for an Interpreter:
 - 1. Announce "End of Call" to the interpreter
 - 2. Thank the Interpreter
 - 3. Hang Up

ACES

Hints on Most Effectively Utilizing an Interpreter:

- When you are first connected with the Interpreter, briefly let them know who you are and why you need them. For example, “Hi, I’m a counselor at Children’s Cabinet and I need to ask a non-English speaking child a few questions to determine how to help them.”
- Let the Interpreter know, should this be the case, that a Speakerphone is being used, and that both of you can hear the interpreter at the same time (this will alert the Interpreter that there is no time delay needed as if you were handing a single handset phone back and forth between you). May not apply to your situation.
- If there are other people (such as family) in the room, ask them not to speak unless they are directly addressed (as random voices will make the Interpreter’s job more difficult and will elongate the call which will thus make it more expensive). You may have to have the Interpreter repeat this request in the family’s language.
- Always talk to the limited English proficiency (LEP) person in the first person, i.e. “Bruce, how are you feeling today” and never ask the Interpreter to ask the patient a question”, i.e. “Interpreter, please ask Bruce how he is feeling today.” This will make for a smoother conversation that flows more easily and also shortens the call - which helps save money.
- The Interpreter’s job is solely to take what you say in English and turn it into as close to word-for-word as possible in the Target Language and then take what the LEP person says and turn that as closely as possible into English. They will never add or delete anything and will not express opinions or advice – they are simply an extension of your voice. If the LEP person says they don’t understand – that’s what the Interpreter will tell you.
- If you need to have several short conversations with a LEP person over an extended time, get an interpreter for each segment and don’t keep the original interpreter on the line when you don’t need to directly interface with the LEP person - but merely call for a new interpreter whenever you need to converse with the LEP person – YOU DO NOT NEED THE SAME INTERPRETER – for the interpreter does not need to know what was discussed in prior conversations.

Phone Interpreter Training & Qualifications

Phone interpreter candidates must pass:

- 1) A comprehensive bilingual language assessment
- 2) An in-depth screening interview
- 3) A three-step interpreter qualification test

Language Proficiency

Interpreter language assessment was developed by industry experts and it is based on the Interagency Language Roundtable (ILR) scale. Interpreters must score the equivalent of at least a "3-Professional Working Proficiency" on the ILR scale. Interpreter language assessment scores are kept on file.

Extensive Interpreter Training

Interpreters receive 120 hours of training before taking calls: two to three times the industry average. Training is delivered in class and is instructor-led, as opposed to online, over-the-phone, or not at all. Training includes industry specific terminology for medical appointments and emergencies.

Screening and Background Checks

As part of the interpreting services hiring process, phone interpreters also pass multiple background checks. All interpreters are processed through monthly OIG/GSA exclusion testing and E-Verify. Other checks include: County Criminal Checks, Social Security Number Trace (Address History Search), and the Sex Offender Registry.

Comprehensive Quality Monitoring Program

Interpreters are held to the highest standards. Quality monitoring is performed 16 times per month for interpreters with less than 90 days of service, and 12 times per month for all others. Depending on the outcome of the assessments, interpreters may receive awards, coaching, retraining, or other corrective actions.
