8. All laundry shall be handled according to Delaware regulations for Laundry Services in nursing facilities and in accordance with industry standards. Laundry shall be considered as potentially infectious and handled according to universal precautions as outlined in the recommendations for the Center for Disease Control.
9. Services shall include wash, dry, fold, sort, and bundle for easy inventory of incoming clean articles. The proposal shall include the bundling method. Clean linen will be kept covered at all times.
10. Carts/bins shall be sanitized prior to placing clean linen in them to be returned to Stockley Center. The contractor shall identify their method for sanitation in their proposal.
