Response to Bidders Questions

- 1.) The bid specifications under Section 00010- Invitation to bid, 3rd paragraph states “Attendance at this meeting is mandatory for all prospective bidders and will be a pre-requisite for submitting a bid”.

However, the pre-bid meeting notes state the pre-bid was mandatory for both prime and subcontractors.

“12/9/2013 Pre-Bid Meeting: A chance for contractors to ask questions about the project. This event is mandatory for both prime and subcontractors seeking to submit a bid.”

Can you verify that the pre-bid was mandatory for prime contractors only?

Answer: Subcontractors did not need to attend the meeting.

The Pre-Bid Meeting minutes were distributed for informational purposes only and are not considered part of the Bid Documents. Bid Documents are defined in Specification Section 00100 – Instructions to Bidders, Article 1, Paragraph 1.5 - Bidding Documents. Bids should be prepared based on the information provided in the Bid Documents only.
