Questions and Answers

1. Page 2, Section II, Letter C., Minimum Qualifications for the Medical Director, 6) – Can you please clarify what type of certification are you requiring? When I look up Medical Director certification there are several different types.

The certification required is the Certified Medical Director (CDM), which is administered by the American Board of Post-Acute and Long-Term Care Medicine.

2. Page 3, Section III, Letter A, Number 6, CPA letter – Would a letter from a company's bank describing the bank's long-term relationship with the company or an audit opinion from an independent CPA suffice to meet or substitute for the CPA letter requirement?

The audit opinion from an independent CPA will suffice. A letter from the company's bank will not meet the requirement.
