BIDDERS QUESTIONS AND ANSWERS

Clarifications/Questions	Response
Q1. Referencing page 41, Section 5: Would it be appropriate to send a thumb drive rather than a CD?	A1. A thumb drive would be acceptable. A physical copy of the bid must be mailed or hand delivered in order to be considered.
Q2. Page 41, the second-last paragraph on page 2 states that proposals should be sent to Sean.Sokolowski@nccvt.k12.de.us , do you want the submission emailed there as well as mailing 2 paper copies?	A2. The proposal may be emailed to the email address listed, however a physical copy must be mailed or hand delivered in order to be considered.
Q3. Missing delivery unit.	A3. Provide model number and product data for proposed delivery unit.
Q4. Missing a light.	A4. Provide model number and product data for proposed light.
Q5. Central Cabinet or approved equal, they don't have one for that model anymore.	A5. Provide model number and product data for central cabinet.
Q6. Cabinet details are needed.	A6. Provide clarification on what details are needed.
Q7. When do you expect to take delivery of this order?	A7.
Q8. Some equipment (i.e 5543.99) is discontinued; what do you want in its place?	A8. Provide current model that replaces the discontinued item.
Q9. Can you expand on "... or Approved Equal"? How would we know before bidding what an approved equal product is?	A9. Provide product data for proposed substitution no later than April 30, 2025. Approved substitutions will be issued in addendum post on May 5, 2025.
Q10. There is not enough information provided for us to accurately bid this; can you please send us the Adec Quote that was used to organize it including cabinet drawings, configurations with item #'s, etc? Almost every Adec item is configurable, which means there are several ways to build it & we can't accurately do it without more info	A10. Provide product information for items that appear to be missing. Contact Sean Sokolowski to schedule a site visit to review the existing conditions.
