General Banking RFP — TRE25101-BANKINGSVC
ADDENDUM #2

TO: All Offerors
FROM: Fiah M. Kwesseu
Director of Operations and Fund Management, Office of the State Treasurer
DATE: July 24, 2025
SUBJECT: Addendum to Invitation to Bid Updated Description – Component 4: Prepaid Debit Card— Contract No. TRE25101-BANKINGSVC

Please be advised that the description for Component 4: Prepaid Debit Card under Section C. Banking Services has been updated as follows:

Component 4: Prepaid Debit Card

This component includes services currently used by the Division of Unemployment Insurance, the Division of Child Support Services, and the Department of Services for Children, Youth & Their Families to distribute benefits. The State aims to enhance these services and explore options to expand the card program or introduce other solutions that support payroll deposit functions.

The State is interested in prepaid debit card solutions that support both reloadable and non-reloadable card options, depending on program needs. In addition to traditional benefit disbursement, the State is also seeking solutions that can be used for representative payee.

social service programs, including foster care, residential treatment facilities, and client-centered allowances or stipends.

Solutions should offer robust fraud protection, clear reporting capabilities, and flexibility to accommodate a range of use cases across agencies.

Bidders responding to this component of the RFP are required to address this update in their proposals, which are due to the State by Friday, August 8th. All other terms and conditions remain unchanged.
